- Must reside in Nova Scotia
- A member of good standing;
- Are able to travel to attend face-to-face meetings, or conferences;
- Have access to the Internet and e-mail;
- Are able to attend meetings via teleconference;
- Are able and willing to serve for a given mandate of two (2) years to a maximum of three(3) consecutive mandates.
- Are able to dedicate approximately 5 to 10 hours/month to various projects. Please note that time commitment required will vary throughout the year and is dependent on the portfolio; and
- Excellent communication skills
- Must submit a nomination form signed by three (3) nominators, and consented to by the nominee, who all must be members in good standing of the Association at the date of submission.

Desirable Qualifications:

- Have previous Board experience or Committee work

Characteristics of a KANS Board Member Candidate

The ideal candidate should be able to represent the interests of their fellow Kinesiologists while assisting with the progression of the KANS initiatives. This individual should be well versed in the provincial climate of the profession and have a general understanding of the Universities graduating Kinesiologists and the various courses offered within the programs. An appreciation of the history of kinesiology association and development of the profession in the province would be valuable.

Benefits of being a KANS Board member:

- Development of project planning, communication, leadership and budgeting skills;
- Satisfaction with enhancing the professions recognition and credibility provincially.
- Attendance to meetings on a regular basis as set annually by the Board of Directors via teleconference most of the time, and in person at least once a year.
- Networking opportunities – a variety of networking opportunities exist as the KANS main objective is to market the profession of Kinesiology in the province. This provides extensive opportunities to interact with other professional organizations and associations.
